

Pivotal Vision signs Pacer Sales to represent Intelligent Surveillance Product Suite for Central Great Plains Region

Minneapolis, Minnesota (October 22, 2009) — Pivotal Vision, the developer of ScadaCam® Intelligent Surveillance Systems, today announced its partnership with Pacer Sales to represent their product suite for the Central Great Plains sales region. The Kansas-based company will focus on providing Pivotal Vision's automated surveillance solutions to critical infrastructure, commercial and government markets.

"Pacer Sales is a quality sales partner," said Jerome Larsen, Executive VP of Sales for Pivotal Vision. "We're excited to have them representing ScadaCam to their clients in the central U.S. Having well-established firms like Pacer Sales join our sales representative network gives our product strong backing and affirms its value to the markets they serve." Pivotal Vision's sales representative network covers all of North America.
